

WANTED

BY THE FBI

Campbell, California
November 21, 2015

UNKNOWN BANK ROBBERS

DESCRIPTION

Sex: Male

Remarks: The suspects wore black hooded sweatshirts and masks covering their noses and mouths.

Vehicle Information: The suspects fled to a waiting white VW Jetta, which was occupied by one or two more suspects. The VW was later found abandoned on Kuehnis Drive (the street directly behind the bank). Witnesses saw the suspects get out of the VW and get into a green pickup truck. The green truck was later located a short distance away on Phantom Avenue. Both vehicles were determined to be stolen.

Weapon Used: Semi-automatic handgun

CAUTION

On November 21, 2015, two men robbed the Wells Fargo Bank located at 1790 South Bascom Avenue in Campbell, California. The two suspects, armed with guns, entered the bank and demanded everyone get on the floor. One of the suspects forced bank employees to open the vault. Money from the vault was placed into a black bag and what was described as a blue reusable grocery bag.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
